PRIVACY NOTICE (HOW WE USE PUPIL INFORMATION)

When your child starts at school and, as they continue to progress through the education system, we ask for and collect data in order to fulfil certain legal obligations and to support your child with their education, as well as their personal and social development. We take our responsibilities in this respect very seriously and your data is only shared with outside authorities where we are either legally required to do so, or to inform other agencies who are also involved in supporting your child whilst at school. There may also be times where medical information needs to be shared in the event of an emergency.

We have policies and procedures in place to ensure that we store and transmit all data in a secure way to protect your child's rights.

The purpose of this Privacy Notice is to inform you about the data we hold, who we share it with, why we share it and how long we retain it all. We are also, by law, required to advise you of the 'lawful basis' under which we collect and process the data, as defined by the 'General Data Protection Regulations Act (GDPR)'.

The data that we collect about your child is defined by the GDPR as 'personal data' and in some cases is also called 'special category data', data which is perceived as being more sensitive (e.g. data on ethnicity and religion as well as medical data).

The categories of pupil information that we collect, hold and share for all pupils include:

- Personal information: such as name, unique pupil number, address and date of birth
- Characteristics: such as ethnicity, language, nationality, country of birth and free school meal eligibility
- Attendance information: such as sessions attended, number of absences and absence reasons and any exclusions
- Medical information: such as allergies, medical conditions, disabilities, physical and mental developmental difficulties, doctor's contact details
- Educational information: such as school reports, assessment data, exam and test results

In addition, for some children we will also collect, hold and share data which includes:

- Educational information: such as information on their Special Educational Needs , reports and support provided by external agencies and ‘Educational Health Care Plans’
- Data on behaviour: such as data on any exclusion and/or records of any major breaches of school policy
- Data on Safeguarding: such as concern sheets and Child Protection Plans

Why we collect and use this information:

We use the pupil data:

- to support pupil learning
- to monitor and report on pupil progress
- to provide appropriate pastoral care
- to assess the quality of our services
- to comply with the law regarding data sharing
- to support the work of other external organisations involved in the support of your child

In addition, throughout the school year we also take photographs and videos of pupils which are used:

- for displays around the school
- within our school prospectus and on our school website
- reports for sporting events, school plays or other purposes within school publications and the general media.

The lawful basis on which we use this information:

We collect and use ‘personal data’ under the following ‘lawful basis’, as defined within the GDPRs:

- to fulfil our duties as a public authority, which is defined as our ‘public task’
- in order to ensure that we provide your child with the right level of support in order for them to progress well during their time at school, which is defined as our ‘legitimate interest’
- in the case of an emergency where your child might be in need of medical help and we are unable to contact you, which is defined as their ‘vital interest’.

We collect and use ‘special categories of personal data’ under the following ‘lawful basis’ as defined within the GDPRs:

- Article 9(2)(a): where you have understood the reason for us requesting the data and have given your consent to us doing so for the purpose specified
- Article 9(2)(b): where processing is necessary for the purposes of carrying out the obligations in the area of social protection law

- Article 9(2)(c): that processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of your child or of another person where you or your child are physically or legally unable to give consent.
- Article 9(2)(d): that processing is carried out in the course of our legitimate activities, with appropriate safeguards.

For the taking and use of photographs and/or videos of pupils, our lawful basis as defined within the GDPR is 'consent'. We will write to you when your child starts at our school to ask for your consent and will supply you with more detail.

Collecting pupil information:

Whilst the majority of pupil information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulations, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain pupil information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing pupil data:

We hold the majority of pupil data for the time that your child remains at our school. When they transfer to another primary school and/or on to a secondary school, their data is also transferred. Their final school will hold the majority of pupil data (contained within their individual pupil files) until they reach the age of 25. Some data is held for a shorter period of time and is thereafter destroyed.

Who we share pupil information with:

We routinely share pupil information with:

- Schools that the pupils attend after leaving us
- Relevant Local Authorities
- The Department of Education
- Within the Multi-Academy Trust
- School Nurse, National Health Service
- Agencies involved with supporting your child

Why we share pupil information:

We do not share information about our pupils with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

We share pupils' data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins school funding and educational attainment policy and monitoring. We are required to share information about our pupils with the (DfE) under regulation 5 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

In addition, if your child joins our school from another school, their individual pupil files will be transferred with them and similarly, when your child leaves our school to attend another school (either primary or secondary) their individual pupil files will be transferred with them, including information regarding any special educational needs they might have, contact with external agencies and/or child protection files.

Data collection requirements:

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education (for example; via the school census) go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

For more information about services for young people, please visit our local authority website.

The National Pupil Database \(NPD\):

The NPD is owned and managed by the Department for Education and contains information about pupils in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the Department. It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies.

We are required by law, to provide information about our pupils to the DfE as part of statutory data collections such as the school census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The law that allows this is the Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

To find out more about the NPD, go to <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information>.

The National Computer Database:

The Department may share information about our pupils from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

The Department has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of our data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and use of the data. Decisions on whether DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is required
- the level and sensitivity of data requested: and
- the arrangements in place to store and handle the data.

To be granted access to pupil information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.

For more information about the department's data sharing process, please visit: <https://www.gov.uk/data-protection-how-we-collect-and-share-research-data>

For information about which organisations the department has provided pupil information, (and for which project), please visit the following website: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-requests-received> . To contact DfE: <https://www.gov.uk/contact-dfe>

Requesting access to your personal data:

Under data protection legislation, parents and pupils have the right to request access to information about them that we hold. To make a request for your personal information, or be given access to your child's educational record, contact the School Business Manager/Data Protection Officer.

You also have the right to:

- object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- object to decisions being taken by automated means
- in certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed; and
- claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the Data Protection Regulations.

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we request that you raise your concern with us in the first instance. Alternatively, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>
